

Seattle Native American culture in Seattle

Events and celebrations:

- Pow Wows where they dance and play music
- Week long canoe journeys in memory of tribes.

Art culture:

- Carved house poles with animal “Spirits” inside
- The Native Americans carved on the inside of their houses and not the outside
- The Native Americans carve every day objects

Seattle is the only major city named after a Native American Chief. Chief Seattle was known for being a peace maker .

<----- Chief Seattle

Chief Seattles famous statement

“Every part of this country is sacred to my people. Every hill side, every valley, every plain and grove has been hallowed by some found