NOTAS de Maestra:

Good afternoon Padres!

We had an AWESOME first week of school!!! I really enjoyed getting to know the students. I am looking forward to an awesome school year! This week during devotions we talked about rules, and how we will demonstrate love to each other by respecting everyone. We read 2 Corinthians 5:17 "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" and talked about what this verse means to us. I thank God for the opportunity to work with you guys, Thank you for sharing your precious kiddos with me! I assure you he/she will find love in this classroom and she/he will be treated as a unique individual. Please don't hesitate to talk to me about anything, I am here to help you and remember we are a team to help your child grow and succeed in all areas of development. Have a blessed and wonderful weekend!
