Maestra Delgado | Week #22

Febrero 2, 2024

NOTAS de Maestra:

Happy first week of February! We had a great week full of assessments. :) The students did wonderful! I see a lot of growth in all areas. All students did their best and I love to see that as a teacher. Today during devotions we talk about kindness. We read a few bible verses and listened to a story. Ask your child how he/she can show kindness to people around them. Have a bless weekend!

The second lesson is gender split and the same biological sex parent is invited to come with their child; this lesson talks about caring for our bodies and making healthy choices. If you would like to watch this 4th grade parent video link, it nicely summarizes the 4th grade curriculum. 4th grade: <https://vimeo.com/781211924> P.S.
