Maestra Delgado | Week #28

March 15, 2024

NOTAS de Maestra:

We had a wonderful week :) The students are working hard to finish this trimester strong, they are practicing the main focus of devotions this month which is diligence versus laziness. They have been working diligently :). We have a few exciting things coming up, the cultural event, a few presentations, and the beginning of market day. The students are so excited! Thank you for all your support at home. I will be sending an email with a few important reminders. Have a wonderful weekend!
