

Armies Report card

By: Corbin and Natalie

Grade	Continental Army	British Army	Grade
C	Military- The Continental army was made up of all citizens but had some good marksmen	Military- The British army was the strongest army in the world	A
A	Geography- The Continental soldiers fought in the french + Indian war and were used to the territory	Geography- The British soldiers were unfamiliar with the land and were not used to fighting in the wilderness	D+
F	Supplies- The continental soldiers were very low on their supplies and some went withouts boots and also shoved rocks in there guns for ammo	Supplies- The British Army was low on supplies because the shipping took three months to get to the Americas also when they were low they stole from Americans	B+
D	Money- the continental army was very short on money because the states couldn't give them money because they didn't have enough	Money- Had little money, because of having used it all on earlier wars with Spain and France	B+
D	Leadership- The continental army had general washington who was know because of fighting in the french + Indian war and some others were William Prescott , Artemas Ward, Henry Knox, and Nathan Hale.	Leadership- The British army had good leadership because they all had been trained some leaders were Edward Braddock, John Burgoyne, Henry Clinton, and General Thomas Gage	B+
D	Overall- the overall is that the americans should have lost the war.	Overall- The British army should have beaten the Americans but they didn't.	B+