

Grade	Continental Army	British Army	Grade
C+	Military-Citizen soldiers, They were not much of a navy, most of them owned their own guns, and were good marksmen, they were good wilderness fighters. They had fewer soldiers in the beginning. soldiers sometimes went home at harvest time. soldiers sometimes enlisted for only one year.. they had help from other countries.	Military-They were used to fighting in formal straight lines and They had problems adjusting to cold winter battles. They had a strong experienced army, The best navy in the world. they had 50,000 british troops 30,000 hessian mercenaries and 30,000 loyalist troops. Had defeated France and Spain recently so they were running low on supplies, but they were still fresh on how to fight and what all the commands were and stuff like that. They did not own their own guns.	A-
A+	Geography-Knew where all of the shallowest places were in the river and knew their land very well, and were fighting on their own land.	Geography- they were fighting on a land they did not know. And they were not good wilderness fighters. Were unfamiliar with swamps	D+
D-	Supplies-States often did not send supplies. supplies often low including shoes, clothes and gunpowder	Supplies- Had plenty of supplies, but if they needed more it took a long time to tell the king they need supplies.	B+

C-	Money-Dependant on states for funds from states. Little money. The states often did not send money.	Money- They had a lot of wealth, a lot more wealth than the Continental Army because Great Britain had more wealth to begin with and they were not dependant on anybody for funds.	B+
D-	Leadership- George Washington was a great leader for them. Other than George Washington though they had inexperienced officers that did not know much about being an officer.	Leadership- They had a strong experienced army so they had experienced officers that knew what they were doing and knew how to be officers.	a-
