Stories of Christian persecution

Terrorist bombs killed 35 Christians attending church in Lahore, Pakistan, on Sunday (March 15), according to a report sent to Christian Aid Mission by a local ministry. Dozens more were injured, with many of those in critical condition.

Isis kidnapped 220 Christians on March 12 and have not allowed any of them to leave, there is a possibility that they will all be slaughtered or tortured by Isis because of their faith.

These are common day to day events in Syria

People are put in Jail for their Faith

Christian persecution is getting worse now that the Isis have come into the picture, many of the Christians in Syria are fleeing to escape the persecution. Without a stable Government much of Syria is ruled by Muslim rebels who persecute Christians without punishment, much of Syria is literally in a state of anarchy. They behead, burn at the stake, bury alive, torture and even crucify them.

Many of those people are just little kids. Even babies. They use kids with mental disabilities as suicide bombers. The main source of Christian persecution currently comes from Muslim extremists. Over 250 million Americans are Christians, if one in 2.5 Americans helped a persecuted Christian we could end persecution.

Fundraisers

Last year four-hundred and fifty dollars were raised to help a family across the border, we hope to be able to do that this year as well. You get across by bribing the guards. Remember even spare change can help. Just a penny in the jar can do so much.
